

MILLS COLLEGE

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
MILLS COLLEGE • CALIFORNIA

December 21, 1936

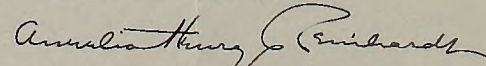

My dear Miss Parlow:

I am sending you a few dictated words this pre-Christmas morning for two reasons. First of all, that there shall really be expressed by December 25th a personal and hearty Merry Christmas for the Parlow family, removed so far from our sunny campus at Mills and the unique and delightful studio in San Francisco.

Second, I am reporting the regret and gratitude expressed by the Board of Trustees of Mills College at their meeting on Friday, December 18. This group of officers of our institution meet but four times a year. In September, they had learned of your telegraphed desire for leave of absence. In December, I had to report that the leave of absence was to be interpreted as a resignation.

The Board of Trustees asked the President to express to you their appreciation for the service you had rendered our institution in the seven years you have given your rare talents and unique experience to the students of violin in our Western institution. They regret that your future lies so far from the vicinity of our educational undertakings.

Yours with affection,

Aurelia Henry Reinhardt
